tells us that "the children of this world are in their day wiser than the children of light." Drawing from this text, Reinhold Niebuhr wrote a book which he called The Children Of Light And The Children Of Darkness. In it he makes the same point that our Lord made: Let the children of light be as shrewd in goodness and in virtue as

The Children of Light and the Children of Darkness, first published in 1944, is considered one of the most profound and relevant works by the influential theologian Reinhold Niebuhr, and certainly the fullest statement of his political philosophy. Written and first read during the prolonged, tragic world war between totalitarian and democratic forces, Niebuhr's book took up the timely question of how democracy as a political system could best be defended.
