The story of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table is very, very old. People know that there was a king in Britain between the years 400 and 600. He fought the Saxons, from countries in the north of Europe, and perhaps this king was Arthur. He lived, perhaps, in Wales or in the west of England – in Somerset or Cornwall.

ideal knight. Any knight who spilled Christian blood, they said, was actually spilling the blood of Christ. The Church charged knights, as God's knights, with the duty of protecting the weak, upholding a godly life, and battling the enemies of Christianity. Knights would still get to fight, but now they would be serving God with their deadly talents.
