general.â€• The authority we have lost in the modern world is no such â€œauthority in general,â€• but rather a very specific form which had been valid throughout the Western World over a long period of time. I therefore propose to reconsider what authority was historically and the sources of its strength and meaning.

Space for Note - UT College of Liberal Arts

Power and authority can be out of balance when either influence exceeds authority or when authority exceeds the ability to influence. One example of the former is the authoritarian use of power.
