The distribution of wealth is a comparison of the wealth of various members or groups in a society. It shows one aspect of economic heterogeneity.. The distribution of wealth differs from the income distribution in that it looks at the economic distribution of ownership of the assets in a society, rather than the current income of members of that society. . According to the International ...

Chapter 5: Goldilocks and the Trojan Horse – Creating and Maintaining Coalitions. When you try to gather support for your new idea, you need to strike a Goldilocks zone in radicalism – radical enough to stand for something and not be tepid, but conservative enough to avoid alienating a mainstream audience. People external to the movement tend to identify it with its most radical position ...
